

I completely support the use of XM radio. It offers alot of what local radio cannot. I believe it would be unjust to restrict the ability of this new and improved technology to provide all applicable programming. The NAB should be ashamed of itself. Why not do what's best for the consumer?